

BCN Telecom Partners with Military Talent Source, LLC to Support Growth

Morristown, NJ, January 24, 2018 - BCN Telecom, a leading provider of technology solutions focused on simplifying complexity for multi-location businesses, has teamed with Military Talent Source, LLC a specialized firm that conducts military recruiting and veteran employment consulting, to source and retain qualified candidates for the BCN team.

“Our partnership with Military Talent Source continues our Company’s long tradition of supporting the military and veterans in both our employee base as well as through our charitable activities,” said Richard M. Boudria Jr., BCN President & CEO. “Prior to his business career, our Founder and Chairman, Richard Boudria served honorably in the United States Marine Corp and was awarded the Vietnam Service Medal with campaign star and other citations for service in the Vietnam War. He left the Marine Corps at the rank of Captain.”

BCN has engaged the team at Military Talent Source, LLC to facilitate the growth the Company anticipates in 2018 based on year over year performance and expanded partner engagement.

“Military Talent Source, LLC is a full focus military talent acquisition firm that matches veteran talent with civilian sector career opportunities,” said Matt Leonard, MTS Founder & CEO. “We provide a personalized service to both separating military service members and corporate clients in order to match talent to specific opportunities in the civilian corporate sector. Because we understand both the military and corporate cultures we are able to break through barriers and overcome the all too common frustrating challenges.”

“Together with Military Talent Source, LLC we have already secured a highly qualified candidate that joined our Sales Support organization,” said Kathleen Gorey, BCN Human Resources Manager. “Because they speak both the military and corporate languages they were able to help us design a program that enabled our new team member to access the GI Bill benefits he earned based on his service in the U.S. military.”
