Quality Branded (formerly Fourth Wall Restaurants), is a New York-based restaurant group that develops, owns, and/or manages high quality and high-volume restaurant concepts, including Park Avenue, Quality Meats, Quality Italian, Quality Eats, Maloney & Porcelli, and Smith & Wollensky New York.

THE SIGNS OF COMPLEXITY

- Multiple locations.
- 30+ monthly invoices.
- 15+ different telecommunication network providers.

THE CHALLENGES OF COMPLEXITY

When BCN first became engaged with the Quality Branded, formerly Fourth Wall Restaurants, they had just completed a reorganization project, having sold several locations. What was left could be described as a grandmother's blanket of infrastructure. BCN completed a full audit of services, invoice review, and site surveys with on-site smart hands dispatchers. It was uncovered that the client was receiving over 30 invoices, from 15 different carriers, across multiple service locations.

BCN FINDS SIMPLICITY IN COMPLEXITY

BCN developed a comprehensive project plan and managed the full scope of work to deploy a new MPLS network, assume the existing POTS lines, replace the client's Local PRI's and install SIP Trunks at many locations. In addition, BCN implemented a DR plan for the client by providing broadband internet and wireless backup at all sites with managed equipment for redundancy. In addition, the agent partner and client can access all their account information through the BCN Customer Portal to view and manage service locations, products and services, orders, tickets and more.

With BCN as our single-source for provisioning, invoicing, reporting, and customer service we are realizing monthly hard and soft cost savings exceeding $20,000."
